

Actions you can take

Print the forms out twice, fill out and send one copy to the Counselor/Principal of your child's school.

This should be done with the first week of enrollment at the start of the school year.

Keep a copy for yourself and call the Counselor to make sure that they processed the form correctly.

Act to Protect Your Privacy from Military Recruiters

You may be harassed at home by military recruiters because your name, address and phone number will be given to them by your school — unless you tell your school to not give out the information.

To exercise your legal right to have this information kept private, you should notify your school office as soon as possible.

Some school districts may provide their own forms for this, but they must obey your request no matter how you submit it.

You can write your own letter or use the one on the front of this leaflet. Use a letter or form for each individual student and keep a copy.

It is not required by law, but we recommend having a parent or guardian also sign.

Actions you can take

Print the forms out twice, fill out and send one copy to the Counselor/Principal of your child's school.

This should be done with the first week of enrollment at the start of the school year.

Keep a copy for yourself and call the Counselor to make sure that they processed the form correctly.

Act to Protect Your Privacy from Military Recruiters

You may be harassed at home by military recruiters because your name, address and phone number will be given to them by your school — unless you tell your school to not give out the information.

To exercise your legal right to have this information kept private, you should notify your school office as soon as possible.

Some school districts may provide their own forms for this, but they must obey your request no matter how you submit it.

You can write your own letter or use the one on the front of this leaflet. Use a letter or form for each individual student and keep a copy.

It is not required by law, but we recommend having a parent or guardian also sign.